

History Gap Task: Definitions

Task: research and define these terms. They are all key political terms, which we will use frequently in the A level History course. Wikipedia or a similar online source will help you. You may also be able to find simple definitions on the 'Politics tutor2you' website. The first is done for you to show you an example.

Autocracy: A form of government in which power is centralised into the hands of one person; Usually a monarch.

Democracy:

Liberal Party.

Conservative Party.

Labour Party.

Franchise:

Electorate:

Parliament

House of Lords:

House of Commons:

Cabinet:

Foreign Secretary:

Home Secretary:

Chancellor:

Prime Minister:

Government:

Opposition:

General Election:

Left Wing:

Right Wing:

Trade Union:

Centre Ground:

Laissez Faire:

State Intervention:

Socialism:

Nationalism:

Imperialism:

Coalition:

Trade Union: